

Happy New Year [for 2012]

We hope all of our clients had a successful festive season which allowed some time for recuperation and relaxing with family and friends. We wish you all the best for the year ahead.

Product feature! [Eezistrip]

Are you looking for an all purpose degreaser which is also safe to use in all food prep areas and all HACCP compliant kitchens? Eezistrip:

- carries the SABS Food Grade (1828) approval
- is highly dilutable, (depending on the severity of dirt buildup)
- can be used on all surfaces, floors and equipment as well as the extraction canopy and filters.

Eezistrip can also be used on certain light duty grill line apparatus. The use of eezistrip eliminates the need for a non HACCP compliant chemical.

Employee of the month [Tommy Moabelo]

Tommy is an assistant workers' manager at Joe Soap, and has been in this position for four years. He is the intermediary between the workers at Joe Soap and management, and is also the person the clients speak to if they're unhappy with the way an order has been filled. Once an invoice has been made out, Tommy will make the pulling slip for each driver, and it's this slip that the drivers use to fill their orders.

"The part of my job that I enjoy the most is the relationship that I have built, and continue to build with the guys who work here. I enjoy solving problems and seeing them grow personally."

In his spare time Tommy is an enthusiastic musician, finding time to play keyboard and sing in gigs in bars and community halls. His passion is R&B, and he has completed a sound engineering course.
